

MINISTRY OF PLANNING KURDISTAN REGION STATISTICS OFFICE

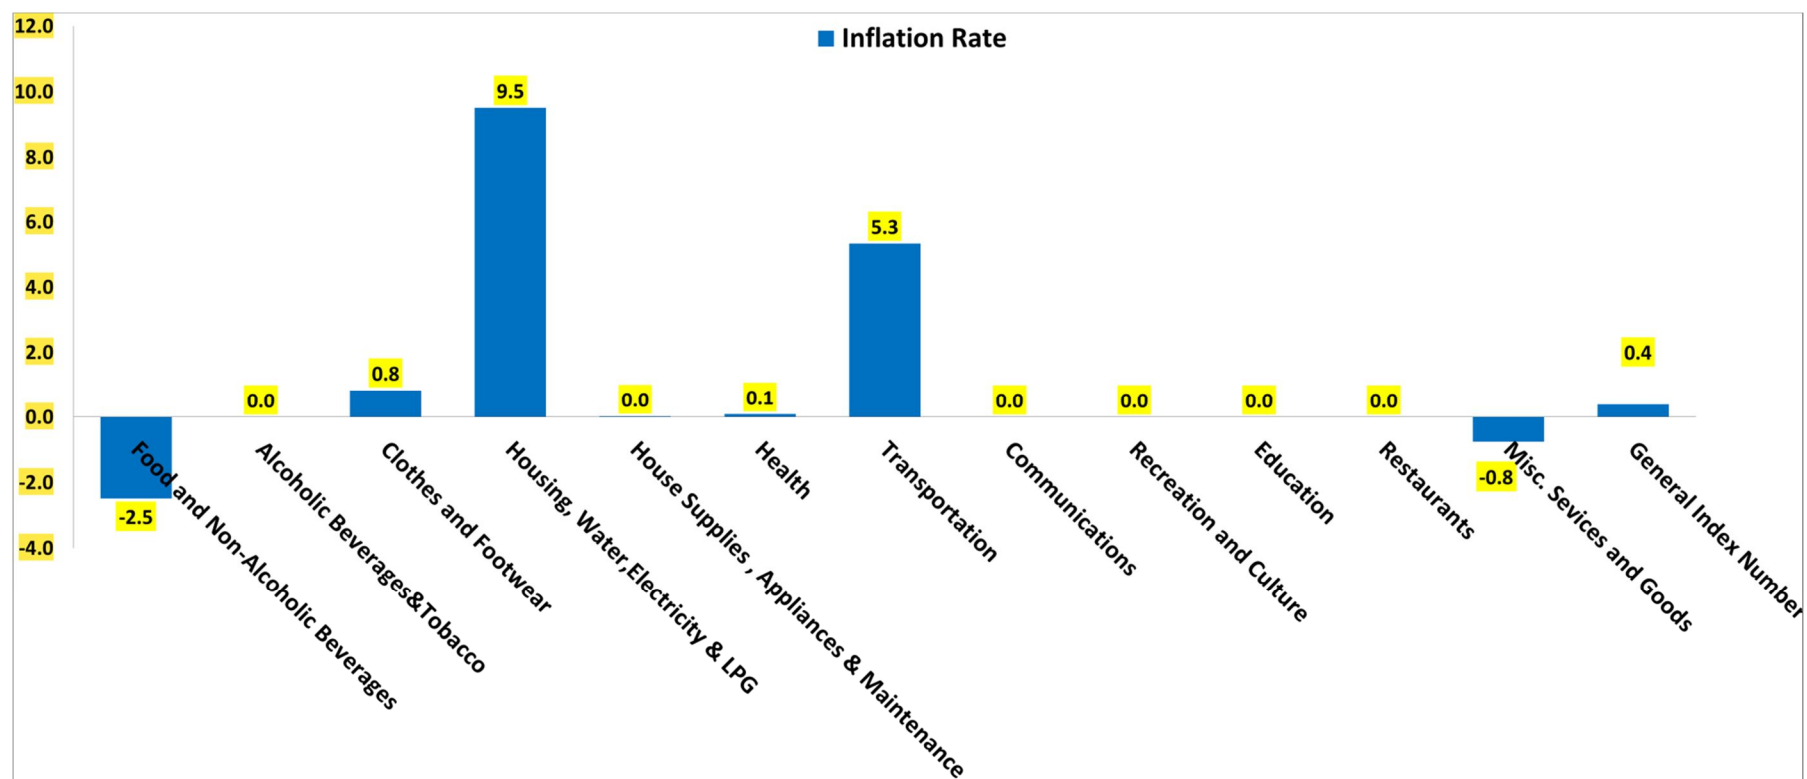

Consumer price index (CPI) has slightly increased over the month of July 2014

CPI of Kurdistan Region has reached 147.0% in July 2014 and due to this result the increase-rate reached 0.4%. The CPI has increased because of the rise of the prices of Clothes and Footwear, beverage, rental fees of houses, electricity, water, fuel and Transportation .

Monthly Inflation Rate & CPI in Kurdistan Region for July / 2014

Monthly Inflation Rate in Kurdistan Region for July / 2014

The figure shows an increase in average rate of inflation in the categories of house rental , electricity, and fuel which are due to increased price of electricity and water and this is the result of increased prices of house rental and electricity generators in local communities . and transportation price is increased because of the rise of the price of petrol .

Published in July 2014

For more information visit www.krso.net